And the Story Continues...

As students moved back “down the line” and on to campus from the summer break, the staff toiled to compile a collection of memories worthy enough to represent everything that seniors had done and accomplished throughout their time spent at URI. The year started out on the same exciting note as the previous years with the hustle of trying to find classes in new buildings and figuring out how to pay for the ever so expensive books required for classes.

More Memories to Come...

Not to the delight of most students the new parking passes came with a $100 or $175 price tag to commuters and residents (respectively).

Freshmen were banished to the Mayfield Lot while Fine Arts was commuter only, and Flag Road mainly residents. The spring semester brought about the split of Fine Arts, with faculty and commuters sharing a third of the lot. Mayfield mud pit was closed, sending freshmen to the other two-thirds of the Fine Arts Lot.

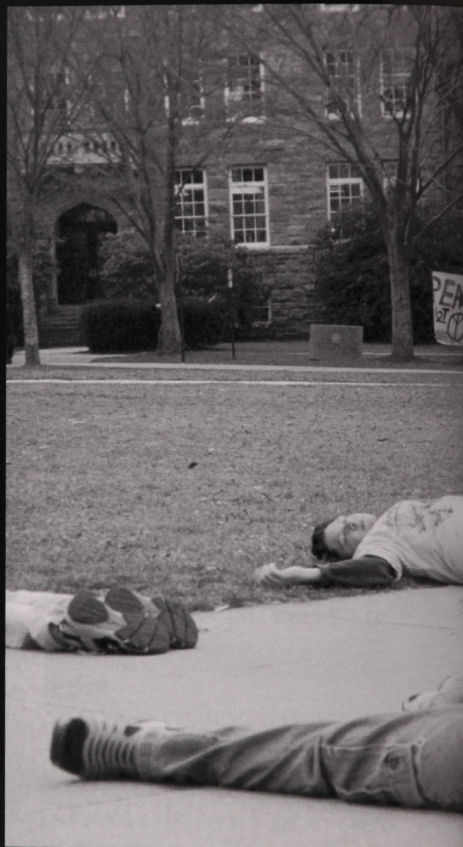

Green Hall finally reopened after extensive interior remodeling. Construction continued on Ballentine Hall leaving the College of Arts and Sciences to fend for themselves in Chaffee for a bit longer. Midnight Madness was canceled. President Carothers' contract was renewed for another three years. The Ryan Center brought large crowds to Men's and Women's Basketball as well as other events.

In world events, the year was filled with sorrow.

On February 1, the space shuttle Columbia disintegrated minutes before its return landing, killing all seven aboard. On, February 20, a fire in the Station nightclub in Warwick, killed 100 people and left many more injured. The US declared war on Iraq on March 19, and the war on terrorism continued on the homefront. But through it all, the American spirit prevailed; we moved on with our lives and learned to make the most of each day. On a happier note, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers won the Super Bowl. Elizabeth Smart, a kidnapping victim was found and returned to her family, alive. In April construction on the new I-195 started closing the last exit of I-195 West into Downcity Providence. The "Big Dig" in Boston finished the North bound lanes of Rt. 93. Rhode Island got new licences and the new Mr. Potato Head licence plates were revealed. Through the snow that fell until mid-April, URI proved to be a patriotic [] place.

Rick,

Dad, Andrew, and I are all very proud of you and your accomplishment. I don't know many people who are as compassionate as you. Every day you embrace life to the fullest. I remember one night when you were 3 and we were lost on the highway. I pulled over to the side of the road and had tears in my eyes because I was so afraid. You took one look at me and the words you said have touched my heart to this day...Do you remember what they were? "Mommy, F-Fear Not For The Lord Is With Thee." You taught me a lesson that night with those 10 little words. I believe the reason that you are not afraid to experience life is because of this day, you still live by those words. Well, now it is my turn to try and impart some wisdom on you...

In everything that you do,
Think insightfully,
Cherish life,
Love deeply,
Listen attentively,
Give selflessly,
Serve God lovingly.

THANK YOU!! If it weren't for all of your undying love and support, who knows where I would be right now. How did this happen?!

Our little Morgann has grown into such a lovely, mature, bright and successful young woman!! It seems like only yesterday when you were just a little (and we do mean little!!) girl full of fun and happiness. When you came into our family you were truly another blessing from God and added so much to our then smaller group. As time went on we added more to the mix and then we were eight!

Now, sadly for mommy and daddy, the numbers are starting to dwindle and, Morgann, you are the next one to begin life on your own. But never ever forget that we are here for you always. You have made your family proud and without you we would not be complete.

Maybe the best way to say how we feel is to quote the theme song "Eight is Enough" written by Lee Hildridge and Ann Leiken for the 80's TV show:

There's a magic in the early morning we found
When the sunrise smiles on everything around
It's a portrait of the happiness that we feel and always will,
For eight is enough to fill our lives with love

Oh, we spend our days like bright and shiny new dimes.
If we're ever puzzled by the changing times,
There's a plate of homemade wishes on the window sill,
And eight is enough to fill our lives with love.

Godspeed, Morgann! Congratulations on your college graduation! Enjoy your life, your new career as an engineer, and your future wherever they may lead you. Keep Jesus in your heart and you will always be safe and happy.

Please come home often for homemade wishes and to continue to fill our lives with love!

Love,
Mommy, Daddy, Derri, Erin, Jillian,
Deven, and Adam XXXXXXXX

Four years of friends and memories...

As the last page turns...

Well, you've done it. You've survived at least four years of exams, classes, professors, and the tears and laughs of friendships that will last the rest of your lives. Now you are beginning the next phase of your lives, but as this chapter in your life closes, you are not just leaving URI. You are leaving with a heart full of memories that will prove irreplaceable in the future.

Memories to Look Back On

Who could possibly forget their first roommate? No one will forget their favorite hang outs Down the Line. Whenever food and conversations with friends were required, they could be found at Charlie O's, and the Mews, as well as many other places. Everyone remembers days spent on the quad and nights spent studying for an exam.

It is my hope, as well as that of the rest of the Renaissance staff, that when the memories of the time you spent here begin to fade and you need a little help remembering, you will turn to this book and find the answer that you are looking for. If, when you flip through this book twenty or thirty years from now, you start to smile as everything comes back to you, then we have done our job. This book was compiled through many, many hours of sitting in front of a computer, tracking down photos, and going out with a camera to find the ones that we couldn't track down. Many people volunteered their pictures to help us with our task, and we are eternally grateful to them for that. Even though we started this year with different ideas about what this book would look like, we all pulled together to produce the 2003 Renaissance Yearbook. We now want to be the first to congratulate every member of the Class of 2003. You have worked hard to earn that degree, which at times seemed so illusive. May you all enjoy a lifetime of health, happiness, and friendship and may you always look back fondly at the time you've spent here.

Editor-in-Chief
